ABOUT MICA

MICA RUNWAY is the leading arts and entertainment high-grade venture in New York City exclusively dedicated to showcasing works by emerging filmmakers, up-and-coming fashion designers, striving talents, literary and visual artists who are disabled, deaf, hard of hearing or deaf-blind. MICA RUNWAY strives to provide access to the film, fashion, art and visual art worlds for disabled individuals who may be intimidated, oppressed or ignored by the gatekeepers of the elite art, fashion and entertainment industries.

This year's MICA Runway 2008, a community affair celebrating and recognizing diversity of all colors, shapes, sizes and backgrounds will feature the theme: As in Art... be Daring, Avant-Garde, Guerilla, Creative, and Innovative.

DEAFVISION FILMWORKS PHILOSOPHY

"We cannot deny our deafness; our disability, or the color of our skins, nor can we disassociate it from our creativity, just as we cannot dissociate race, class or culture from any aspect of our life based on who we are, what we are and where we came from. There are Individuals put on earth by God for a reason who has the courage, the ambitious to overcome the obstacles that are always there, especially when we are no different from them "

Quote by Ann Marie "Jade" Bryan 1999
